PRICE, FIVE CENTS

Paoli Beats Narberth, Hares Trim KeyNels to Tighten Loop Race

Little Space Separates Three Leaders in Percentage Column

DASH ENDS LABOR DAY

Paoli has little respect for "the big three" as leaders of the Main Line League have become known. During July the boys from the last stop on the "local" took everyone into camp for six straight games, then wavered slightly but lost no ground. Sunday the Upper Main Liners started the bombardment all over again with Gene Davis' Narberth nine as the victims, 7-2.

The boroughites also perhaps were lucky that Saturday's pastime was rained out as Brookline, the scheduled opponent, had an extra good game in its system which Gladwyne bore the brunt of on Sunday instead, being on the losing end of a 4-3 score after 12 innings. Incidentally the victory put the Harems in second place just back of Narberth with Gladwyne ever so slightly pushed into third position. The race is now so close among these three that anything can happen on or before Labor Day.

Paoli's victory was the first defeat for Al Herrmann, Narberth hurler, in his last seven starts but Charley Spellman's lads just weren't going to be stopped by anyone. Leading 4-2 at the end of the eighth they put three more men across the plate in the final inning. Al was hit safely twelve times including two-baggers by Spellman and Hamilton. Six errors made by Herrmann's teammates did the defense no good whatever. Narberth's two tallies were made in the eighth and kept Jackson from a shutout win.

The Gladwyne-Brookline game was a beautiful pitchers' battle between Azpell for the winners and McSorley for the losers. The Gladwyne team's six misuses against two for Brookline swayed the tide.

This Saturday the last-place Upper Darby team will play at Narberth, while on Sunday Gladwyne will be host to the Davismen on the latter's first league game away from the borough field in several weeks.

Narberth's 6.15 twilight encounters next week will be: Tuesday, against the Philadelphia Police; and Thursday, versus the "Kentucky Hillbillies," who will bring along their own band for the occasion.

Husband Crashes Plane Bearing Wife Rather Than Hit Boys

When his airplane motor stopped dead last Friday night, Richard Heisler, young Ardmore pilot, looked down and saw a Frankford baseball diamond, excellent for a landing. Also he saw that a boys' baseball game was in progress, so he nosedived his machine in a rock-strewn field nearby.

His wife, Elizabeth, on her first trip as a passenger of her husband, suffered a broken leg and broken arm, and is in the Frankford Hospital. Heisler, who lives on Greenfield avenue, escaped with a black eye and bruises.

Named Music Department Head

Donald S. Johnson, supervisor of music in Lower Merion schools, has been appointed acting head of the music department at the Kutztown State Teachers' College.

Ranger Lodge Athletes Almost Make Complete Sweep of Events at Camp

(Editor's Note: This is the fifth in a series of letters from the boys at Ranger Lodge, Casco, Maine.)

For the second consecutive week one of the boys pitched a no-hit, no-run ball game. This time it was Johnny Stoudt who turned the trick against Zakelo in the senior ball game, the final score of which was 16-0. George Paine, Dick Miller and little Charlie Dykes led the senior sluggers. The afternoon of the next day saw a repetition of this one-sided victory as the Ranger junior team rallied to score a 12-5 win behind Len Jones. Jim Dykes, Dick Custer and Bill Jones proved most adept with the willow in this fray. Likewise the basketball and swimming meets ended in a double victory for the lodge. Ted Collins and Joe

8 Narberth Building Permits Total $2,160 During July

Eight permits for building estimated to cost $2,160 were taken out at the Narberth borough office during July, it was reported to borough council Monday night. The operations are:

C. S. Hager, 146 Merion avenue, roof, $60; J. M. O'Connor, Inc., 15 Sabine avenue, garage, $250; Miss Margaret Squier, 305 Grayling avenue, roof, $180; George S. Trimble, 1216 Montgomery avenue, alteration, $1200; Jake Ruggerio, 321 Hampden avenue, addition to porch, $30; Margaret Hipwell, 400 South Narberth avenue, roof, $270; M. Templeman, 214 Forrest avenue, garage roof, $20; Mrs. J. Leach, 206 Iona avenue, roof, $150.

During July seventy-seven inspections were made by Building Inspector George B. Suplee.

Amesbury Wins Another Rifle Title and Scores in Doubles

A. Donald Amesbury of Merion added two more trophies recently to his string of match victories and championships with the rifle.

Amesbury, a member of the Lower Merion Rod and Gun Club, at Camp Ritchie, Maryland, with his partner Guy Drewry won the two-man team match, competing against 80 other teams. Amesbury and Drewry each had 398 out of 400.

At the Frankford Arsenal, Philadelphia, Amesbury won the Free-Rifle Standing championship which includes a gold medal besides the Free-Rifle cup. He scored 59 hits out of 60 shots. Amesbury is assistant cashier of The National Bank of Narberth.

William G. Hower Urges Political Talks for Clubs

Addressing the Main Line Kiwanis Club Tuesday night, William G. Hower, Montgomery County recorder of deeds and former Bryn Mawr publisher, told the members that he thought political information should be presented before service clubs.

Mr. Hower said that four of the six objectives listed by Kiwanis International had a connection with political affairs.

"It has always seemed funny to me," he said, "to have our officers inform me that we must guard against bringing politics into our meetings, when we know that politics are practiced in all organizations even in churches and charitable groups."

Six Win "Bonus" Prizes

Winners in the "Bonus" game at the Narberth Theatre Monday night were Catherine Getz, 120 Edgewood road, Ardmore, waffle iron; Lucille Dobson, St. Davids, toaster; H. Blum, 203 Lantwyn lane, poker chest; William Ballingall, 511 Haverford avenue, sherbet set; Dorothy Giuliani, 301 Iona avenue, iron and board; J. A. Furse, 501 S. Narberth avenue, vase. The latter four are Narberth residents.

Three new cases of contagious disease were reported in Lower Merion last week by Marvin E. Reynolds, health officer, including one each of tuberculosis, chicken pox and mumps.

Rift in Montgomery County Republican Ranks Over Row Office

"Harmony Committee" Endorses Wilson While Peters and Hower Back Bechtel

CAUSE IS MYSTERY COUNCIL OKAYS REMEDY

A fight for Republican leadership in Montgomery County between State Senator Theodore Lane Bean and his "Harmony Committee" on one side and Fred C. Peters, county commissioner, and William G. Hower, recorder of deeds, on the other, became a certainty this week when the Bean Committee unanimously decided to support Walter A. Wilson for prothonotary.

Wilson, who resigned as editor of the Norristown Times Herald when the publisher decided to support the New Deal, was endorsed for the $6000 post at a meeting of the Bean Committee two weeks ago.

Peters and Hower were not at the meeting and soon afterward declared for Earl B. Bechtel, Pottstown. Foster C. Hillegass, Republican commissioner, also announced that he would back Bechtel.

Monday afternoon, the Harmony Committee met to dispel rumors of defections in the ranks of the Senator's forces. At the meeting, the entire committee declared for a Republican ticket comprised of Judge Harold G. Knight, Judge J. Burnett Holland, both seeking re-election; Wilson for prothonotary and Samuel Glass, of Whitemarsh, for jury commissioner.

Judge Knight is opposed by J. Stroud Weber, Evansburg, a former district attorney, while Judge Holland is not opposed. Wilson has William T. Muldrew, Abington, prominent volunteer fireman, and Romanus Fellman, former prison warden, as opponents in addition to Bechtel.

Attending the meeting at Senator Bean's home were, in addition to the senator, Sheriff Edwin H. Bellis, Peter C. Hess, Lower Merion leader; Harold C. Pike and Ralph Morgan, Cheltenham; Wayne Herkness, Abington; Charles E. Maguire, president of the Upper Merion Republican Club; Frank W. Shalkop, former register of wills; County Treasurer L. Roland Dettre, and District Attorney Frederick B. Smilie and Lloyd E. Johnson, of Royersford.

In addition to these political leaders, Harold C. Pike, campaign chairman, declared that the committee also

New Comedy to Open at Hedgerow Monday

"Penny Wise" Will be 124th in Repertory of Rose Valley Group

Interesting news has been gathered from the precincts of Moylan-Rose Valley of the Hedgerow Theatre's forthcoming plans to bring Jean Ferguson Black's "Penny Wise" to its public Monday.

This play's addition, as the 124th in the Theatre's repertory, is particularly noteworthy because it has been several seasons since Jasper Deeter has chosen to present a light, sophisticated comedy.

"Penny Wise," which recently completed a successful Broadway engagement, was hailed as a frothy bit of neat wit. Miss Black has injected a fresh flavor into her play that adorns it with all the elements necessary for a bright and amusing evening in the theatre. One critic said, "as all plays should, 'Penny Wise' gets better as it goes along."

"Too True To Be Good," the newest Shaw play to be added to Hedgerow's repertory, will make a fitting finale to the Shaw Festival with its two performances on Friday and Saturday.

Lennox Robinson's whimsical comedy, "The Round Table," plays Tuesday, and Eugene O'Neill's absorbing drama "Beyond the Horizon" comes back after an absence on August 18. Andre Obey's fantasy "Noah" returns Thursday.

Relief Cases Up Again

Relief cases in the township and borough which previously had taken a drop last week were increased by six families in Lower Merion which had a total last Friday of twenty-eight, while Narberth's remained the same at three.

Wohlert Gets Action on Faulty Condition of Sanitary Drainage

Letter Implies "Local Authorities Negligent or Incompetent," Report States

CAUSE IS MYSTERY COUNCIL OKAYS REMEDY

Anton Emil Wohlert, Democratic candidate for burgess of Narberth, got action Monday night on faulty sewage disposal facilities in the Narbrook Park section, a proverbial thorn in the side for several years.

Borough Council approved a recommendation to remedy the condition after Mr. Wohlert had written to the State Board of Health, and the Pennsylvania authorities in turn had written to the local solons.

An explanation of Mr. Wohlert's complaint is given in the report of the Highway and Sewer Committee, presented to Council by its chairman, Robert F. Wood, as follows:

"The unusually severe rain storm in the early evening of July 26, caused the sanitary sewer to back up into the cellar of the residence of Mr. A. E. Wohlert, at 26 Narbrook Park. This trouble has occurred previously in times of heavy rainfall, and some years ago we installed a one-way valve in Mr. Wohlert's lateral which prevented any occurrence of the trouble until the recent storm."

"This condition is caused by the fact that there is some illicit connection by which surface water enters the Conway avenue sewer main. We have made frequent attempts to locate the cause of that trouble, but have been unable to find it. Mr. Wohlert is naturally disturbed and feels that the health of his family is menaced whenever that occurs, and, therefore, he wrote to the State Board of Health, implying that the local authorities were either negligent or incompetent, and probably both. The State health authorities wrote and asked us for a report. We gave it to them and invited their advice and assistance. They have recommended that we should engage the services of Charles F. Mebus, who has frequently served the borough as an engineer in the past. Our own investigations have convinced us that a considerable amount of exploratory digging may be required and, as we cannot estimate the expense, we recommend that this committee be authorized to engage the services of Mr. Mebus and to spend whatever sums may be necessary in order to locate and remove the cause of this trouble."

Mr. Wohlert is owner of the Garden Nurseries in Penn Valley.

Range Wires Short Circuit

When wires leading to the plate of an electric range in the home of Clifford D. Goodwin, 218 Lantwyn lane, Narberth, short circuited Wednesday morning, the insulation was burned off causing dense clouds of smoke to rise in the kitchen.

Firemen of the Narberth Fire Company, summoned to the home, pulled the switch in the basement, and an electrician was called in to repair the damage.

Legion to Reconvene Monday

The Harold D. Speakman Post, American Legion, will reconvene at the Community Building, Narberth, Monday, at 8.30 P. M., following a recess of two weeks from the unadjourned session of August 2.

Penn Valley Garden Club To Show 37 Classes At Fall Flower Exhibit

Thirty-seven classes will be represented in the Penn Valley Garden Club's Fall Flower Show to be held at the Montgomery Day School on McClenaghan's Mill road from 3 to 9 P. M., September 14.

This exhibition is open to amateurs only and there is no requirement as to residence or club membership. Exhibits must be delivered between 9 and 11 A. M. the date of the flower show.

Printed schedules with more complete information regarding entries may be obtained from Mrs. E. C. Drew, 635 Moreno road, Penn Valley, who is chairman of the Schedule Committee.

Mrs. Walter D. Fuller is general chairman of the exhibit. The schedule of classifications in-

Excellent Time Now for New Junior High Without Tax Increase

Board President Speaks in Favor of $950,000 Bond Issue for Cynwyd Building

TALKS TO ROTARY CLUB

The Lower Merion School Board can add nearly a million dollars to the bonded indebtedness of the district without any increase in taxes. This was the claim of Everett E. Burlingame, president of the board, in speaking Tuesday before the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club.

Mr. Burlingame spoke in behalf of the proposed $950,000 bond issue at a meeting in charge of William H. Decker, a member of both the Rotary Club and the School Board. The method by which the board proposes to block a tax rise was explained:

"Money is cheap and plentiful today," the speaker said, "and we expect to float this issue at a net interest rate of not more than 2 per cent. Nothing will be paid on principal for three years, until two older bond issues are paid off. By that time, the saving in the cost of servicing these earlier issues, plus the increase in real estate valuations, will permit us to amortize the bonds at about our present budget rate."

"The proceeds of the bond issue which we are asking you to approve on September 14 will be used to erect

Dog Law to be Enforced

A warning to residents that the dog law will be enforced in Pennsylvania, was issued this week by Fred Walzer, chief of the dog law division at Harrisburg.

Mr. Walzer, former Narberth magistrate, said that owners of unlicensed dogs are liable to a fine of $5 and costs, and urged that they should take out licenses which may be procured at the Township Building, Ardmore, before a house-to-house checkup starts in the near future.

He suggested that dogs be given plenty of fresh water and that they be kept in the house or in the shade during the hottest days.

Committee to Make Survey of Salaries Paid Boro Employees

Council to Receive Recommendations; Town to Assume Elm Hall Mortgage

NO ARRESTS IN JULY

A survey to determine whether there should be adjustment in salaries paid to borough employees, is being made in Narberth. Approval of the survey was given by Borough Council Monday night, and William H. Fretz, president, appointed Clarence Kaerber, chairman, and William H. Durbin and Robert F. Wood as members of a special committee to undertake the investigation.

This committee is authorized to make definite recommendations and to report its findings to Council at either the September or October meeting.

Council also gave its approval to a resolution which makes the borough surety for the amortization of the present $23,200 mortgage on Elm Hall. The Narberth Fire Company, owner of the building, in return gives the borough an option to buy Elm Hall, if and when payments are not met, by payment of the principal and interest due.

Annual payments will be spread over a period of 12 years with interest reduced from six to four per cent. The borough will furnish a collateral bond to The Philadelphia Contributionship for Insurance of Houses From Loss by Fire, holder of the mortgage.

The Narberth Fire Company approved the agreement August 2.

No arrests were made and only one accident occurred in Narberth during July, it was reported by Roland Flier, of the Public Safety Committee.

On recommendation of Eugene H. Davis, chairman of the Water, Light and Health Committee, bids will be advertised for both one-year and three-year garbage hauling contracts, to be opened at the September 13 session.

Burgess John R. Hall asked that steps be taken to close the open tunnel under the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks west of Dudley avenue. He was assured by Mr. Wood, chairman of the Highway Committee, that this would be done.

The Beechwood lane private sewer line, to which the Berkeley road public sewer recently was connected, will be taken over as borough property, the councilmen decided.

Dell Presents Final Programs of Season

Performance of "La Vivandiere" and Solo Appearance of Iturbi Will Close Season

Robin Hood Dell's most successful summer season closes next week with the first Philadelphia performance of Godard's opera Comique, "La Vivandiere," a solo appearance by Jose Iturbi, the noted Spanish pianist-conductor.

"La Vivandiere" will be presented Monday night by the American Opera Company, a new organization of singers associated with the Academy of Vocal Arts of Philadelphia, and dedicated to the presentation of opera in English.

This will be the second time the opera will be given in this country. It had its initial American performance in Trenton earlier in the season by the same company.

A large and distinguished cast will sing in the opera. It is headed by

Coroner's Jury Holds Driver of Milk Truck for Grand Jury

George L. Chaburn, of Narberth, milk truck driver, whose helper, Clarence D. Sell, of Collingdale, was killed in a collision last Wednesday, on Saturday was held for the Grand Jury by a coroner's jury.

E. R. Klinedinst, of York, driver of the freight truck which also figured in the crash, was exonerated when it was learned that Chaburn had failed to observe a "Stop" sign on Gulph road, at Bryn Mawr avenue, Penn Valley, where the fatality occurred.

Testifying at the inquest were Sergeants Frank Pollack, Clarence Robb and Officers Robert Brown and Harry Maxwell, of the Lower Merion police, and Nicholas Azzari, Narberth, eyewitness of the crash.

a new junior high school in Cynwyd, to remodel the old academy building and the present Cynwyd School, and to erect a central heating plant for the three buildings.

"The present junior and senior high school buildings in Ardmore now have 2200 students and are becoming overcrowded. By 1939, when the new building will be ready, the need will be acute. At that time we will move the seventh grade students from the nine elementary schools, thus giving them three full years of junior high school work and relieving congestion in the lower schools. We hope, in the future, to erect another junior high school building in Bryn Mawr and thus relieve the entire plant at Ardmore for senior high school work."

Mr. Burlingame explained that the present borrowing capacity of the district was $4,455,337.89 and that their bonds enjoyed a highly favorable market. He also pointed to the low tax rate (11 mills) which he believes is the lowest east of the Mississippi.

The speaker praised the late Dr. E. S. Deubler, a former member of the board and of the Rotary Club, and put in a good word for the four members of the board up for re-election.

Merion Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Maxwell, of Baird road, have returned from a several weeks' trip through the Northwest and California, where they visited Banff, Lake Louise, Emerald Lake, Vancouver, Victoria, Seattle, San Francisco, Los Angeles, California and San Diego. While in San Diego they visited Mrs. J. P. Withrow and family, formerly of Rockland road, Merion. On their return trip they stopped at Grand Canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Maxwell, of Narberth Hall, have left for a two weeks' stay at Edgartown, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. George P. Morgan, 2d, and their daughter, Miss Georgine Morgan, of Hazelhurst road, will spend the week-end in Garden City, L. I., as guests of Mrs. Morgan's sister, Mrs. Raymond Hubbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Estey Brown, of Putnam road, Merion Park, and Mr. and Mrs. Neil J. Sullivan, of Kenilworth road, were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Margarge Walsh, of Haverford, at their cottage at Bay Head, N. J.

Mr. Paul H. Griffith, of Heath road, returned Sunday from a two weeks' stay in the Adirondacks.

ROBBINS-ROYCROFT

The marriage of Miss Florence I. Roycroft, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Roycroft, of Uniontown, and Mr. Richard Robbins Dodds, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Dodds, of Pittsburgh, took place on Saturday, August 7, at 11 o'clock, at the Washington Memorial Chapel in Valley Forge. The Rev. Jack Hart officiated.

The bride wore a model of pastel pink lace fashioned on princess lines with a flowing skirt and short puffed sleeves. Her hat was a large affair of pink lace and tulle. Her waistline bridal veil was suspended from the hat and she wore a spray of white flowers consisting of gardenias, sweet-heart roses, lilies of the valley, blue lace flowers and delphinium. Her shoes and other accessories were of white. There were no attendants.

The organist was Mrs. Eleanor Rogers Lambert, of Pittsburgh. A reception followed the ceremony at Green Hill Farms.

Upon their return from a wedding trip in the South, Mr. Dodds and his bride will reside at Brentwood, Pittsburgh. They will be at home after September 1.

Mrs. Ralph E. Hoyle, of 11 Windsor avenue, Narberth, sister of the bride, entertained the out-of-town guests for the wedding who were from Pittsburgh, Wilkensburg, Uniontown and State College. There were a number of other guests from Philadelphia and Narberth.

Playground News

Handicraft Exhibit

The annual exhibit of handicraft work done by the boys and girls on the playground will be shown Wednesday. The crafts will be placed in a window display of the Davis Store and will remain there for one week.

Treasure Hunt

Another treasure hunt, will be held for the younger members of the playground on Thursday. The winner of the last treasure hunt was Ed Bailey. The hunt will start at 10.30 in the morning. Another feature will be a Bubble Contest which will be held next Friday morning. A string is stretched between two trees and the contestants, attempt, from an appropriate distance away, to get the bubbles over the string. The contestant getting the greatest number of bubbles over the string is the winner.

Sports

The Narberth senior and junior baseball teams again won their inter-play ground contests. The senior team won by a score and the juniors won over Wayne Playground by a 2-0 score.

The Tennis Tournaments for men and women have entered the second round. Difficulty, owing to vacations, in getting the remainder of the matches run off promises to run the tournament after the playground season is officially over. However, the cups will be given to the winners after the matches have all been played.

In the Mailbag

Editor, Our Town:

The Narberth Fire Company wishes to take this opportunity to thank the people of Narberth and the surrounding territory for their ready response to the annual contribution to the fire company.

If anyone was not approached or if anyone has forgotten to send in his share, there still is time to become a contributing member by sending $3 to the Narberth Fire Company.

Yours sincerely,

HORACE T. SMEDLEY,
Financial Secretary.

was high man with a brace of 44's.

Two Mount Washington parties safely made the difficult ascent to the summit during the week. Downs Longaker and Harley Anders led the party that also had Dan Karcher, Dave Alburger, Cliff Roberts and Bill Grugan. Dick Withington forgot the mess kits, but they were not seriously missed. The other trip was of two days' duration under the tutelage of Dana Cahoon and Cliff Harkness. Adrian Smith, Bill Deal and Fred Smith were first to scale the pinnacle with Jim Deakins in hot pursuit.

Bill Quinn had charge of a four-day fishing trip in the Belgrade Lakes. Burt Davis and Bill Brendlinger landed some beauties, but distance did not permit them to bring home their prizes, so the camp was forced to forego the pleasure of seeing them.

The weekly water carnival was held and showed up some new aquatic stars. Billy Young, Paul Hicks and Bobby Mahon displayed latent ability that pleased coach Johnny Macionis for the approaching invitation meets at Camp Hawthorne and Bowdoin College.

For the second week hand running cabin 12 7/8 won the inspection prize. Thus Dick Miller, John Stoudt, Bob Warwick, Ted Collins, George Paine, Burt Davis and Rolly Young are entitled to another speed boat ride.

Thursday evening saw the best entertainment program of the year. Lieutenant Flores and his wife demonstrated the art of jiu jitsu. How to get rid of mashers and people who almost crush your bones when shaking hands were the most popular features outside of the actual combat. Parm Read, former councilor and journalist of the camp, returned to render many well received selections on the marimba.

Whiffle and convict haircuts have replaced the scraggly looking locks of most of the boys as a result of several trips to the barber in Naples. The cutest haircut was applied to George Paine, who had the middle shaven clean so Doc Moore could bandage the hole received mysteriously under water.

The proposed contests between the councilors at baseball and water polo were postponed because of inclement weather. The season's series in baseball is knotted at two games apiece. Both teams are confident their pitchers can pull out a victory, the councilors counting on Lefty Ace Quinn to shove them past rival batsmen, while the boys are stacking their chips on the baffling hooks of Baseball Joe Clausen.

"Woman Chases Man" With Miriam Hopkins at Narberth

"Woman Chases Man," now at the Narberth, teams Miriam Hopkins and Joel McCrea in a rollicking comedy about a destitute girl architect who chases a wealthy young tightwad clear across the continent to get him to finance his nutty inventor-father's model village. Charles Winninger is the father.

"Way Out West," Monday and Tuesday, presents Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy as two desert prospectors in the Gay Nineties who get into all sorts of trouble in the typical Laurel and Hardy manner. Monday at 9 P. M. the "Bonus" game is an added attraction.

Wednesday (Cash Award Night), Robert Montgomery will be starred in "Night Must Fall," a thriller-chiller psychological study. Rosalind Russell and Dame May Whitty are among Montgomery's intended victims, and Alan Marshall and E. E. Clive are also in the cast.

Next Thursday and Friday Edward G. Robinson and Bette Davis will be seen as the stars of "Kid Galahad," which features Wayne Morris.

Anne Simon, who is well known to the Philadelphia concert stage, in the principal role of Marion, "La Vivandiere."

H. Maurice Jacquet, renowned composer and conductor who formerly conducted the orchestra at the National Opera Comique in Paris, will lead the men of the Philadelphia Orchestra.

"La Vivandiere," written in 1895, is Benjamin Godard's most successful work and has long been a favorite in its native France. Its setting is laid in the provincial town of Nancy during the revolution of 1794.

For the final concert of the season on Tuesday, Mr. Iturbi, who will appear in the dual role of conductor and soloist, has selected a program of familiar works.

Mr. Iturbi will also conduct the concert this Sunday.

LAST in your mind until . . .

The normal, happy, healthy home seldom gives a thought to illness. Perhaps it's not until the middle of some quiet night when the doctor breathes one word . . . "appendicitis" . . . or perhaps it's not until those agonizing moments of sudden silence which follow a highway crash . . . it's not until THEN that you think of Bryn Mawr Hospital.

But the hospital is always thinking of you . . . and what needs to be done if you need us!

Last year, fourteen thousand cases came to us. They came at all hours of day and night; every day in the week, every week in the year. The rich and poor of every race and creed were brought to Bryn Mawr — and all that medical science could do for them was done, without question, without investigation.

In 1936 free services rendered to those who could pay nothing, and to those who could pay partially, amounted to $65,000. This did not include free medical and surgical assistance conservatively estimated at an additional $100,000 or a total approximately $165,000.

But we're still here, ready to serve you and your neighbors in that hour of need. Bryn Mawr is your hospital.

Never forget that!
